Black Voices on Story Telling (PDF version) "The classroom was a jail of other people's interests. The library was open, unending, free."

Black Voices on Story Telling (PDF version)

Description : Black Lenses, Black Voices is a provocative look at films directed and written_and sometimes produced_by African Americans, as well as black-oriented films whose directors or screenwriters are not black. Mark Reid shows how certain films dramatize the contemporary African American community as a politically and economically diverse group, vastly different from film representations of the 1960s.
