Impalement, as a method of execution and also torture, is the penetration of a human by an object such as a stake, pole, spear, or hook, often by complete or partial perforation of the torso. It was used particularly in response to "crimes against the state" and regarded across a number of cultures as a very harsh form of capital punishment and recorded in myth and art.

Impalement - Wikipedia

Death by burning is an execution method involving deliberately causing death through the effects of combustion or exposure to extreme heat. It has a long history as a form of capital punishment, and many societies have employed it for activities considered criminal such as treason, rebellious actions by slaves, heresy, witchcraft, arson (in Japan) and sexual transgressions, such as incest or ...
