Ambiguous Memory: The Nazi Past and German National

Memory is about excavating "about sorting and sifting through the elements of one's past. In the German case, it is not about the lack of memory but rather the enormity of it. Ambiguous Memory is partially an analysis of attempts to dig through the various Germanys in the 1980s and 1990s. It is less a history book than a series of cultural and sociological reflections from the outside.
