Textual criticism is a branch of textual scholarship, philology, and literary criticism that is concerned with the identification of textual variants in either manuscripts or printed books. Scribes can make alterations when copying manuscripts by hand. Given a manuscript copy, several or many copies, but not the original document, the textual critic might seek to reconstruct the original text ...

The third edition of the Australian Guide to Legal Citation (the "Guide") deserves celebration. The Guide is the successor to the Melbourne University Law Review Style Guide, the bane and vade mecum of student editors for many years. The first edition of the Guide appeared in 1998 and the second in 2002. This third edition is considerably longer and more detailed than its predecessors ...
