Children of India Realizing Childrenâ€™s Rights in India Because of the extent and gravity of the situation of children in the second most populous country in the world, only concrete, profound, and long term programs will really be effective.

Children of India - Humanium â€¢ We make children's rights

India, home to one fifth of the worldâ€™s children, ratified the Convention on the Rights of the Child in December 1992. Since then, rapid economic growth, averaging 4.5 per cent annually between 1990 and 2007, has lifted millions out of poverty and combined with government action to improve trends in child survival and develop - ment.
