Cases of Duty to Warn or Protect. The practice of warning an identifiable victim of the risk of violence, adequately determined through clinical assessment, is the model that is discussed and promoted in the professional literature and is in greatest agreement with the Tarasoff principle itself. The Tarasoff principle does not require the clinician to warn the victim of the "œverbal threat ...

Warning a Potential Victim of a Person's Dangerousness

The art of suicide assessment is composed of three tasks: 1) gathering information related to the risk factors for suicide, 2) gathering information related to the patient's suicidal ideation and planning, and 3) the clinical decision making that is subsequently applied to these two databases.

The CASE Approach - Suicide Assessment

Forensic psychology is the intersection between psychology and the justice system. It involves understanding fundamental legal principles, particularly with regard to expert witness testimony and the specific content area of concern (e.g., competence to stand trial, child custody and visitation, or workplace discrimination), as well as relevant jurisdictional considerations (e.g., in the United ...
