

courbet and the modern pdf

While the large-scale figural works of Gustave Courbet's early to mid-career pictures such as Burial at Ornans, The Stonebreakers, and The Studio of the Painter are of signal importance to the history of Western art, it is in the genre of landscape that the artist laid the groundwork for a vital current of Modernist painting. A young turk from the provinces who made his mark in Paris, he promoted his image as a gregarious outsider, passionate, physically robust, and profoundly ambitious.
