In law, a judgment is a decision of a court regarding the rights and liabilities of parties in a legal action or proceeding. Judgments also generally provide the court's explanation of why it has chosen to make a particular court order.. The phrase "reasons for judgment" is often used interchangeably with "judgment," although the former refers to the court's justification of its judgment while ...

"I am through the entire process and have been promoted to Lieutenant after finishing first in the process. I have no doubt that the system used by your company allowed me to excel to the top and without it I would not have done as well.. I did not find the program until late in the process and had no idea it would be as in depth as it is.
