Displacement, Resettlement, Rehabilitation, Reparation and Development iii This is a working paper prepared for the World Commission on Dams as part of its information-gathering activity.

Displacement, Resettlement, Rehabilitation, Reparation

Development-induced displacement and resettlement (DIDR) occurs when people are forced to leave their homes and/or land as a result of development. This subset of forced migration has been historically associated with the construction of dams for hydroelectric power and irrigation but is also the result of various development projects such as mining, agriculture, the creation of military ...
