Dreaming Anastasia is a book that is right up my alley... magic, fantasy, historical fiction, mystery, adventure, fairy tale with a little romance mixed in. The legend of Anastasia Romanov mixed with the Russian folktale character Baba Yaga meets modern day Anne Michaelson for a unique story that I enjoyed.

more recent interest in Russian literature and so this book really found its place in my life. The writing isn't terribly great and at times it can become confusing but I really enjoyed the novel despite these setbacks. It was a great start to my summer reading and I plan on finishing the trilogy soon.
