"The Big Payback" is a Nebraska-era B-side obscurity, as tight, taut, and sinister as anything on the album it didn't make but a whole lot more fun to sing.

I enjoy all of Springsteen's records but my favorites are the ones with The E Street Band. Though I did learn a lot from the book I did find it very boring at times. There was just too much detail for me into all of the drama between Springsteen and record companies, producers, managers, and other band members.
