Canada is one of the most largest agricultural producers and exporters in the world. As with other developed nations, the proportion of the population and GDP devoted to agriculture decrease dramatically over the 20th century but it remains an important element of the Canadian economy.

Agriculture in Canada - Wikipedia

Agriculture is the cultivation of land and breeding of animals and plants to provide food, fiber, medicinal plants and other products to sustain and enhance life. Agriculture was the key development in the rise of sedentary human civilization, whereby farming of domesticated species created food surpluses that enabled people to live in cities. The study of agriculture is known as agricultural ...
