Fact, Faith, and Experience by David A. Huston This paper is presented as a response to those who think of faith as a passive acceptance of truth rather than an active response. Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. Hebrews 11:1

Fact, Faith, and Experience - Jim McKinley

For most Israelites of the Old Testament, the historical event that formed the basis of their faith was the Exodus. The preamble of the Ten Commandments, read with the Decalogue, was read at least annually, and reminded the Israelites of the reality of God through His historical work (). God is real, because He freed the nation of Israel from slavery in Egypt.
