Fever Season (1999) About book: It strikes me as very risky for a writer to write an historical "whodunnit" featuring an actual infamous figure from the past. This particular person is not exactly a household name, but for someone who (like me) has taken more than one Haunted History tour of New Orleans, it probably won't take long before the reader figures out why a particular name sounds so familiar.

One of my favorite pieces this season was made of unprepossessing pistachio wood. Standing only 8 or 9 inches it wasn't tall, red and flashy as some of its companions, it had no markings created by electricity and it wasn't combined with thousands of complex rare woods creating amazing patterns.
