France 1848-1945: Volume I: Ambition, Love and Politics

This book is a history of the French, covering the period 1848-1945, which tries to explain their idiosyncrasies, enthusiasms, and prejudices. It goes beyond the recital of events to investigate their attitudes and behaviour over an unusually wide range of activities. The first part scrutinizes the peculiar way of thinking and of talking adopted by the French, their powerful sense of ...
