The biggest question about God is not, surprisingly enough, whether he exists. It's about whether God is really good. In my debates with leading atheists, I noticed that many of them aren't real unbelievers. It's not that they refuse to believe in God; rather, they are angry and disappointed with God. Many unbelievers are wounded theists.

God told Moses he was going to lead His people out of Egypt. Moses, along with his brother Aaron, went to the king to ask him to let God's people leave Egypt. (Show 10b and 10c.) The king said, "No!" He wanted God's people to stay and work for him. So God sent plagues, or troubles, on the Egyptian people. First, all the water became blood (10d).
