When Abraham Lincoln spoke of "a government of the people, by the people, for the people," he was speaking of more than the consecration of a battlefield; he was speaking of a wave of transformation that was changing the way government related to the citizens it served. This transformation was the second of three waves of change.

themes and ideas that drive the great debates in American government and politics. It introduces students to big questions like Who governs? How does our system of government work? What does government do? and Who are we? By challenging students with these questions, the text gets them to think about, engage with, and debate the merits of U.S. government and politics.
