The Great Migration, sometimes known as the Great Northward Migration, was the movement of six million African-Americans out of the rural Southern United States to the urban Northeast, Midwest, and West that occurred between 1916 and 1970. In the early 1900s, more than 90 percent of the African-American population lived in the American South. In 1900, only one-fifth of African-Americans living ...
