Phenomenology (from Greek phainōmenon "that which appears" and lógos "study") is the philosophical study of the structures of experience and consciousness. As a philosophical movement it was founded in the early years of the 20th century by Edmund Husserl and was later expanded upon by a circle of his followers at the universities of Göttingen and Munich in Germany.

Voyeurism is the sexual interest in or practice of spying on people engaged in intimate behaviours, such as undressing, sexual activity, or other actions usually considered to be of a private nature.. The term comes from the French voir which means "to see". A male voyeur is commonly labelled as "Peeping Tom" or a "Jags", a term which originates from the Lady Godiva legend.

This is really good. But I also think there's a reason our base cultural values are used as a tiebreaker "they're designed to minimize the average actual distaste the average person has with the status quo (You can't have a cultural norm if too many people object to it too strongly, it ends up changing).
