Play is essential to development because it contributes to the cognitive, physical, social, and emotional well-being of children and youth. Play also offers an ideal opportunity for parents to engage fully with their children. Despite the benefits derived from play for both children and parents, time for free play has been markedly reduced for some children.

Volleyball is a team sport in which two teams of six players are separated by a net. Each team tries to score points by grounding a ball on the other team's court under organized rules. It has been a part of the official program of the Summer Olympic Games since 1964.. The complete rules are extensive, but simply, play proceeds as follows: a player on one of the teams begins a 'rally' by ...

From this you can clearly see that watching Soccer gives you the most amount of live "Action," though cynics and soccer-haters would probably claim that a lot of that action is "dead action," defenders passing the ball around and not the type of action you see in other sports.

How much live action occurs in each sport? Ball in Play
