

human nature and historical pdf

Human nature is a bundle of fundamental characteristicsâ€”including ways of thinking, feeling, and actingâ€”which humans tend to have naturally.. The questions of whether truly fixed characteristics exist, what these natural characteristics are, and what causes them, are among the oldest and most important questions in philosophy and science. The science that examines human nature is known as ...

Some Marxists [who?] posit what they deem to be Karl Marx's theory of human nature, which they accord an important place in his critique of capitalism, his conception of communism, and his 'materialist conception of history'. Marx, however, does not refer to human nature as such, but to Gattungswesen, which is generally translated as 'species-being' or 'species-essence'.

Human Dignity and Judicial Interpretation of Human Rights

The truth is the human condition is the agonising, underlying, core, real question in all of human life, of are humans good or are we possibly the terrible mistake that all the evidence seems to unequivocally indicate we might be? While itâ€™s undeniable that humans are capable of great love, we also have an unspeakable history of brutality, rape, torture, murder and war.
