Johnstone's Theatre Machine company; and one of the book's achievements is its success in making improvisations re-live on the page. Like all great advocates of the unconscious, Johnstone is a sturdy rationalist. He brings a keen intellect, nourished on anthropology and psychology, to the task of demolishing intellectualism in the theatre.

Improvisation and the Theatre - Keith Johnstone

Improvisational or improv theater is a special form of performance that encourages audience participation. Audience members shout out words or situations for the actors to incorporate into their performance. Improv is most often comedic in nature, but it can also take dramatic forms.
