Today India and neighbours has come to mean what was once Ashoka's India of the third century BC as its benchmark and the Southern Chola dynasty which built the first great seaborne empire to spread India's influence to the far east or far west as the reach of what India's neighbourhood policy should be.

India-&-Neighbours-2016 - World Focus

India is a vast geographical nation-state sharing borders, both land and maritime, with several countries. Not always are these neighbours disposed to maintaining friendly relations with India, and vice versa.

India and its neighbours: Current scenario | India News

Maintaining good relations with neighbours is the first priority for any country. The credibility of a country's global posture is undermined if it is seen as embroiled in conflicts with its neighbours. While in theory the need to have a peaceful, stable and friendly neighbourhood is clear, what that means in practical terms is a different question.
