The main goal of this monograph is to generalize our earlier work on production frontiers and performance measurement to the intertemporal case.

Intertemporal Production Frontiers: With Dynamic DEA

Introduction 3 1.2 CONNECTION TO EARLIER WORK This monograph is the outgrowth of our earlier work. As mentioned above, it was motivated by Shephard and Fare (1980). As the reader will immediately recognize, however, it is more closely related to Fare, Grosskopf and Lovell (1994) Production Frontiers in 'style' and content.

Most researchers in efficiency measurement will be familiar with the work of Rolf Fare and Shawna Grosskopf, who have done much to ensure that the development of production theory has been on a secure foundation, and that theory is linked to practical application. This admirably concise book is in a sense a summary of their work to date.
