1 Taking Care of your Lute The many surviving documents and pictures, especially from the 16th and 17th centuries, suggest a widespread existence of the lute and similar instruments at that time.

Hunt-Taking care of your lute

The lamp is shattered, the light goes out; the cloud is scattered, the rainbow disappears; the lute is broken, there is no music; the lips are silent, we forget the 'loved accents'; the spirit is mute, no song is echoed in the heart.
