nature has lost its importance, and human became alienated from nature. So the role of nature has changed and became something created to be extracted for human physical welfare; according to White, "Man's relation to the soil was profoundly changed."

A Brief Discussion on Human/Nature Relationship

Man and Nature: Or, Physical Geography as Modified by Human Action, first published in 1864, was written by American polymath scholar and diplomat George Perkins Marsh. Marsh intended it to show that "whereas [others] think the earth made man, man in fact made the earth."

Man and Nature - Wikipedia

George Perkins Marsh's Man and Nature was the first book to attack the American myth of the superabundance and the inexhaustibility of the earth. It was, as Lewis Mumford said, "the fountainhead of the conservation movement," and few books since have had such an influence on the way men view and use land.
