Journal of Medical Imaging and Health Informatics (JMIHI) is a medium to disseminate novel experimental and theoretical research results in the field of biomedicine, biology, clinical, rehabilitation engineering, medical image processing, bio-computing, D2H2, and other health related areas.

Journal of Medical Imaging and Health Informatics

Drawing on biophysics and engineering for primary methodology, medical imaging traditionally has had little overlap with medical informatics. This, however, is beginning to change. As new imaging modalities have proliferated, general-purpose image analysis software has been developed to incorporate ...
