ON A WILD NIGHT is the eighth novel in the Cynsters series. It is the story of Amanda Cynster who along with her twin sister has been looking for a man as wonderful as the Cynster men. For six years, they have been unsuccessful.

Wild Nights "Wild Nights analysis, religious interpretation In this case, our interpretation follows nearly identically with the one above. However, instead of taking this all to be about a carnal desire for another individual, we interpret the whole poem as an extended metaphor about wanting to be with God.
