Order out of Chaos is a brilliant, demanding, dazzling book—challenging for all and richly rewarding for the attentive reader. It is a book to study, to savor, to reread-and to question yet again. It places science and humanity back in a world in which ceteris paribus is a myth—a world in which other things are seldom held steady, equal, or unchanging.

to make a way out of "no way;"™ to make order out of chaos, as God did at the very beginning of the world. It is not by accident that we call all this the "created order!"™ To paraphrase Job's final words, "Oh God, I had no idea, all I knew was that my world was spinning out of control, falling apart.
