Project MUSE - Others Had It Worse

First, let us take the concept of "people have it worse than you do" and apply it to another, pretty graphic situation. Two people just broke their legs in a soccer accident. However, one person managed to fracture their leg in three places while the other only fractured theirs in two places.

"Other People Have It Worse Than You Do." - Odyssey

I had to take each day at a time, and sometimes even each moment. I don't believe I'd even finished my sentence before you responded, "Oh. Well, you should think of those worse off than you."

To the Person Who Reminded Me Others Have It Worse After

So next time you're feeling low, or you know someone who is, don't say that there are bigger problems, don't say that others have it worse, and don't tell them to "snap out of it". Take the time to understand your feelings, and then take steps to improve your situation.

Stop Telling People That Others Have It Worse - Guestlist

The other day I heard from a reader who said, "I guess I just need to be stronger. When I read the comments on this site, I realize that others had it much worse than I did." I've heard similar words from many others. "Other people had it worse" doesn't help because you are not other people.

Others Have It Worse Than Me: SELF-INVALIDATION

I didn't realize that the fart had a smell, something far more repulsive than its sound. And other things started to make sense too. Whenever I'd play that jellybean game with my friends, with the beans that had repulsive flavors like grass and throw up, the disgusting beans didn't taste that bad to me.
