Otto Neurath (1882-1945) wrote on rationality in the 1910s when he was interested in renewing the economic science on an empiricist fundament. He discussed rationality mainly in two contexts.

Otto Neurath: Philosophy Between Science and Politics

Neurath's philosophical contributions to logical empiricism appear now more distinctly motivated and more clearly understood: It is to serve the valuable goal of unified science, within science, philosophy and society, that Neurath conceived the
