The Professional Association of Diving Instructors (PADI) is a recreational diving membership and diver training organization founded in 1966 by John Cronin and Ralph Erickson. Cronin was originally a NAUI instructor who decided to form his own organization with Erickson, and to break diver training down into several modular courses instead of the single universal course then prevalent.

Our first six years of travel were an epic road trip around North America with an awe inspiring highlight being our trek around Alaska.. We might live there if we weren't suffering from Sedentary Lifeaphobia and summer lasted forever. Now we're on a sailing voyage about the world (did we have any previous sailing experience, of course not). Our vessel is our home and we're always on the ...
