Strategic bombing during World War II was the sustained aerial attack on railways, harbours, cities, workers' housing, and industrial districts in enemy territory during World War II. Strategic bombing is a military strategy which is distinct from both close air support of ground forces and tactical air power.. During World War II, it was believed by many military strategists of air power that ...

2001 Announcements (back to top). On March 27, 2001 I (Harold Marcuse, Herbert's grandson) turned a one-page biography that I had on my UC Santa Barbara faculty website into a comprehensive web page with annotated links on the marcuse.org server maintained by my brother Andrew. The thumbnail at right shows what that first homepage looked like.
