Echo rhythm. Speak or clap rhythms to a study partner, and have the partner respond on Takadimi syllables. This is a very effective way to learn rhythm, and should come before reading and writing with notation. Experiment. Include the element of pitch. Singing rhythm on one repeated pitch puts strain on your voice and is not recommended.

like clapping hands and stomping feet. Rhythm is independent of melodic pitches; melody, however, needs rhythm for shape and form. Because it can exist even without melody, it can be argued that rhythm is the most fundamental, core component of music. The inspiration for this project came from working with several populations of music students.
