Yes, cyan would also work for that color. But arctic could be a more evocative word, depending on the context of the sentence and story. The point of this color thesaurus wasn't to 100% match the word with the color, so much as explore different evocative and sensual word choices that push past one's first word choice of blue.

Poor Handwriting: A Major Cause of Underachievement

The high frequency word lists contain the words found in children's reading books in order of the frequency in which they occur. If students were to learn just the words contained on the very first list (words 1 to 100), they will have learned half of all the words they will come across in children's reading materials! They are especially good lists for ELL and ELD students and are great to ...
