A seminar is a lecture or presentation delivered to an audience on a particular topic or set of topics that are educational in nature. It is usually held for groups of 10-50 individuals.

What is the difference between Conference, Seminar

Seminars are frequently more lecture driven with less participant interaction other than answering questions. Often the questions at a seminar are at the end of the presentation. At a workshop, handle the questions as they arise and often turn them into group discussions. Workshops are usually smaller, 25 people or less.
