How baby sign language works. It's not surprising that babies can learn how to sign. Both their understanding of language and their motor skills develop much faster than their ability to speak. And they love to mimic: Most babies, for example, discover how to wave and point long before they can say, "bye bye" or "look at that!"

Talking. Talking and understanding speech go hand in hand. By listening to others, your child learns what words sound like and how to put a sentence together. As a baby, she discovered first how to make sounds, then how to make those sounds into real words ("mama" and "dada" may have slipped out as early as 4 or 5 months).
