Crime statistics. In 2011, Baltimore police reported 196 homicides, the lowest number since recording 197 homicides in 1978. That number is far lower than the peak homicide count of 353 in 1993. The drop in 2011 was significant, when measured by the number of homicides, but the homicide rate was in the same range as the late 1980s when the city population was 130,000 higher.
