usually when a work is first created in a fixed form. Cartoons and comic strips are among the types of works of authorship protected by copyright. This protection extends to any copyrightable pictorial or written expression contained in the work. Thus a drawing, picture, depiction, or written description of a character can be registered for copyright.

Youngsters of around twelve to fourteen make particularly popular cartoon characters. They still have the round faces and big, perky eyes of youth. Add more stuff: makeup, pigtails, dangling earrings, and a summer top. Pigtails and dangling earrings enhance the appeal of this character. Aspiring cartoonists often see these touches as afterthoughts.
