The fisherman and his wife There was once a fisherman and his wife who lived together in a hovel by the sea-shore, and the fisherman went out every day with his hook and line to catch fish, and he angled and angled. One day he was sitting with his rod and looking into the clear water, and he sat and sat.

When the fisherman returned home he saw the new trough. But his wife shouted at him, "You are such a fool! Go back to the fish! Ask for a new house." The fisherman went back to the sea, where the water and sky had become overcast. He called the fish, who swam up to where he was standing. He apologized and said that his snappish wife wanted a new house.
