In recent years, the Business History Conference has sprouted several interest groups that have coalesced around perceived needs. The first two, "Women in Business History" and "Business Historians at Business Schools," meet informally over lunch at the annual meeting to discuss issues in the profession and to network. The "Emerging Scholars" group began informally, but its leadership now ...

Etymology. The name of the city has its origin through Latin, deriving from albus quercus meaning "white oak". The name was probably given in reference to the prevalence of cork oaks in the province of Badajoz, which have white wood when the bark is removed.. The first "r" in Albuquerque was later dropped, probably due to association with the prominent Portuguese general Alfonso de ...
