Monadology G. W. Leibniz the same in all monads, there must be the detailed nature of the individual changing simple substance, this being what makes it belong to one species rather than another. 13. This detailed nature must bring a multiplicity within the unity of the simple substance. The latter's detailed nature

The Principles of Philosophy known as Monadology

Philosophy of space and time is the branch of philosophy concerned with the issues surrounding the ontology, epistemology, and character of space and time. While such ideas have been central to philosophy from its inception, the philosophy of space and time was both an inspiration for and a central aspect of early analytic philosophy. The subject focuses on a number of basic issues, including ...
