review 1: The second installment of a very solid series. Eugenie Markham didn't disappoint as a protagonist, and the love triangle didn't get too wearying. I like the diversity of this series, the solid writing, and the down-to-earth language of the characters.

Thorn Queen (2009) About book: I enjoyed the 1st book in this series more than I enjoyed this one, but still feel this next chapter of the Dark Swan series was well worth the time I spent reading it. Mead intricately wove the concept of duality through out the entire tale and because this is the 2nd book of the series it (at least to me) felt like a bit genius on her part.
