Tibetan Story - English Conversations

This is her story of Tibet, the individual life consumed and enlarged by the struggle for her people and her list homeland. This book is about her duty and her unwavering faith as a daughter of Tibet and the sister of the 14th Dalai Lama to serve her people in their exile.

Tibet, My Story: An Autobiography by Jetsun Pema

I have been seeking this book prior to my meeting with and interview of the writer, for my own book, High Hopes, the history of Tibetan education in India 1959-2015. A great start and important background covered with clarity and told with genuine sense of passion and understanding by a key participant in HH's often misunderstood story.
