the deep value art was known to have in most cultures, and in certain great moments in art history. In particular, it made no allowance for aesthetic properties, which had been pretty much the meat and potatoes of academic reflection on art – if that is not too robust a diet for what I felt was a singularly thin literature.

internal imagery, art, nature, relationships, ministry, dreams, sensations, etc. I amplified this definition of kataphatic prayer by including Harvey Egan's description of the apophatic and kataphatic approaches. The apophatic tradition, the via negativa, emphasizes the radical difference between God and creatures.
