Organizational storytelling is a concept in management and organization studies. It recognises the special place of narration in human communication, making narration "the foundation of discursive thought and the possibility of acting in common." This follows the narrative paradigm, a view of human communication based on the conception of persons as homo narrans.

I've written before about the concept of "resistance to extinction" and how it's not all that cracked up to be when we want strong, fluent behaviors from our dogs.. Unfortunately, the situation where we are likely to notice resistance to extinction is often with behaviors we never wanted in the first place.
