Nano medicine had viewed countless breakthroughs in drug delivery implementations. The main objective of nanotechnology application in delivering and carrying many promising therapeutics is to assure drugs carriage to their action sites, to maximize the pharmacological desired influence of remedies and to overcome their limitations and drawbacks that would hinder the required effectiveness.

TransDermal  $\Delta$  JULY 2011 21  $\Delta$  is the entropy of fusion of the permeant, which for a large number of permeants was about 16 entropy units Thus, the melting point of the permeant drives solu-bility, which decreases about ten-fold for every hun-

The endogenous carrier mechanisms are receptor-mediated endocytosis and membrane transporters. In some cases, when a drug is conjugated to a dipeptide, it gets detected by a peptide influx transporter, which in turn enhances its oral absorption (Morishita and Peppas, 2006). Efflux transport systems such as P-glycoproteins lead to inefficient bioavailability of proteins and peptides, and ...

Abstract. This paper describes hitherto developed drug forms for topical ocular administration, that is, eye drops, ointments, in situ gels, inserts, multicompartement drug delivery systems, and ophthalmic drug forms with bioadhesive properties. Heretofore, many studies have demonstrated that new and more complex ophthalmic drug forms exhibit advantage over traditional ones and are able to ...

Open Access journals are the major source of knowledge for young and aspiring generations who are keen in pursuing a career in sciences. This system provides easy access to networks of scientific journals. Authors that contribute their scholarly works to Open Access journals gain remarkable reputation as the research scholars explore these works extensively.
