'Zero Day' is a thriller so by-the-numbers that if you had told me that Mark Russinovich had written a computer program that had produced it I would be neither surprised or impressed such is the quality of the finished product.

Zero Day by Mark Russinovich - Goodreads

Unfortunately, Zero Day is one of those books where the premise is better than the execution. I found the situations involving hacking, cyber terrorism, and politics too absurd to suspend my disbelief to enjoy the story and the ending too perfect to feel satisfactory.
